About the Concordia Foundation

The Concordia Foundation became a registered charity in 1995 with Yehudi Menuhin as its patron. Founded by Gillian Humphreys out of her real concern that is important to Build Bridges of Friendship and Excellence through Music and the Arts.

Their mission is:

- to initiate and develop international educational and artistic links;
- to build bridges between nations through the performance, appreciation and understanding of all forms of the arts through the exchange of visits by artists between Great Britain and overseas;
- to encourage, support and promote young emerging artists.
